Mary's Pizza Shack Introduces a New Menu Features new Pizzas, Sandwiches, Appetizers, Entrées and Salads

Sonoma, CA – June 12, 2007 – Mary's Pizza Shack, the 16-unit Italian casual restaurant chain, introduces an exciting new menu, continuing the tradition of homemade recipes from Mary Fazio, on June 26th. Introducing new menu items like the Chicken Picatta, Italian Garlic fries, a "Vegetarian Delight" sandwich, a meatball pizza and a new thin crust pizza section, the menu keeps all of the old favorites like Toto's Combination Pizza, the Hot Meatball Sandwich, Spaghetti & Meatball, homemade soups and the popular Mary's Salad.

Mary's Pizza Shack COO and Mary Fazio's grandson Vince Albano stated, "When my grandmother opened Mary's Pizza Shack in 1959, she asked customers to pay what they could afford. And she made everything from scratch. We want to continue to provide that same quality food at a reasonable price". As always, all menu items are homemade from Mary's original recipes and made to order. New menu items have been tested and approved by Mary's second and third generation family members and are sure to be a Mary's favorite. Some old favorites have also been added to the menu, such as the "He & She", two meatballs in a boat with Mary's authentic old world meat sauce and melted mozzarella cheese.

With the demand for more protein and healthier options increasing, Mary's Pizza Shack has added an entrée section and has issued a nutritional brochure, listing the nutritional information for their healthier options. Salads, soups, pastas and even three different pizzas are all healthier choices that fit the Mediterranean diet, low in saturated fat and calories. Brochures will be available at all Mary's Pizza Shack locations.

The new menu emphasizes the fun history of the shack, with photos of the Mary Fazio family in the original Pizza Shack in 1959. Mary's Pizza Shack COO and Mary Fazio's grandson Vince Albano stated, "The new menu was designed to emphasize the fun energy and history of the Shack. It's what we're all about!"

The new menu will be introduced in all 16 Mary's Pizza Shack restaurants on June 26th.
